—Dr. Warnock of Gonzales, will be in Shiner today, and remain several days. All who have ailing teeth, will do well to call on him.

—Mr. D. G. Helmers and wife started for the battle of flowers at San Antonio last Thursday, and returned on the regular train Saturday.

—Herman Olle of Flatonia was here last Wednesday on a visit to Mr. Frank Vrazel. Herman also had an eye to business and may locate in Shiner.

—The Herald states that two of Hallettsville's young attorneys will soon wed. They must be very courageous young men. The lawyers up this way can hardly be made to face a young lady.

—Don't get angry because you receive a bill for subscription due on your paper. Remember you get more value for your money out of your weekly paper, than anything else you buy.

—The following young people took in the battle of flowers at San Antonio, last Friday and Saturday: C. J. Gray, Edmund Harder, Adolph Blohm, Alfred Jungbecker, Miss Ella Richter and Emma Luedtke.

—Joe Meyer of Dreyer, was in Shiner last Wednesday wearing a broad smile, caused by the arrival at his home of a fine large girl baby. Joe will have to plant more corn and hogs this year for he will have an extra mouth to feed.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

One bay horse, 14 hands high, branded thus — on left shoulder, scar on one ear. Has been gone about two weeks. A liberal reward for the return to me at Shiner, Texas.

J. A. WOLTERS.

FOR SALE.

Two full blood Jersey cows, with heifer calves; also a half blood Durham with heifer calf. Call at The GAZETTE office, or at D. W. Hughes' place.

—According to appointment, evangelist R. J. Deets arrived last Friday, and began the meeting, under the auspices of the Methodist church. The services are being held at the Baptist church, as it is larger than the Methodist. The services thus far, with the exception of Sunday, have only been fairly well attended, Sunday night there was a good crowd out. If you want to hear good practical everyday religion preached, come out and hear brother Deets. The singer, Prof. Doyle, arrived on Saturday, and began at once to organize a choir.

—Mr. Frank Dolejsi and Miss Katie Berchenhoff, were married Tuesday of last week at the Catholic church by Rev. Father Hudcek. A large crowd of invited guests were present, some from a distance. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's parents, a short distance in the country, and spent an enjoyable time feasting and dancing. The next day the bridal couple left on the north bound train, on a visit to relatives and friends. The best wishes of The GAZETTE goes with them.

—Mr. L. M. Kokernot, has purchased of Mrs. R. A. Houston 1000 head of fine yearlings. Five hundred head were placed in Mr. Kokernot's pasture on the Gaudalups, and 500 head were sent to Jackson Co. to Kokernot and Brothers. It has been the custom of Mr. Kokernot for the past ten or eleven years to take all of the yearlings offered by Mrs. R. A. Houston. They are good cattle and Mr. Kokernot always pays the top price for them.

—The following relatives and friends from a distance, of the contracting parties, attended the wedding of Mr. Frank Dolejsi and Miss Katie Berchenhoff. Mr. Dolejsi, father of the groom and two daughters, from Industry, Austin county; Mr. Peter Baska and family, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Hemrae and Adolph Pecacek and daughter, all of Hallettsville; Mr. Henry Grieve and mother and Willie, Agnes and Betty Branitsky of Flatonia.

—It is now in order for Shiner to give a grand celebration and May Fest in commemoration of the completion of the new waterworks plant, which will be about the latter part of May. Get your heads together, gentlemen, let us have a mass meeting, appoint committees and have a blow out such as Shiner and Lavaca county has never before seen. Don't all speak at once.

—We have recently had several papers marked refused and thrust back in the postoffice, by subscribers who are owing for from one to two years on subscription. Gentlemen, if you can't pay the price of a two-cent postage stamp each week for your home paper, come up like men, pay up your back dues, and the paper will be stopped beyond the peradventure of a doubt.

—Otto Richter returned last Wednesday from Havana, Cuba where he was a member of Co. K of the 1st Texas regiment, and was in General Lee's 7th army corps, stationed at Havana. Otto seems to have had enough of a soldier's life and was glad to get home again, although his stay in Cuba was pleasant enough.
